LIMITATION ON LIABILITY

The Texas Legislature has enacted statutes governing liability arising from equine activities or livestock shows in Texas. Pursuant to Title 4, Chapter 87, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, a person such as an equine activity sponsor or equine professional generally is not liable for damages arising from the personal injury or death of a participant in an equine activity or livestock show if the injury, property damage, or death results from dangers or conditions that are an inherent risk of an equine activity, including:

- (1) The propensity of an equine or livestock animal to behave in ways that may result in personal injury or death to a person on or around it;
- (2) The unpredictability of an equine or livestock animal's reaction to sound, a sudden movement, or an unfamiliar object, person, or other animal;
- (3) With respect to equine activities, certain land conditions and hazards, including surface and subsurface conditions;
- (4) A collision with another animal or an object; or
- (5) The potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or another, including failing to maintain control over the equine or livestock animal or not acting within the participant's ability.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY

THAT FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of the payments and mutual covenants of being permitted to participate in activities associated with, but not limited to, the handling and /or riding of equine animals, I / WE and the CITY agree as follows:

I / WE hereby agree to indemnify, release, defend, and hold the City of Tyler, and all of their members, officers, agents and employees, both paid and voluntary, hereinafter referred to as “RELEASEES”, harmless of and from any and all liability claims, suits, or cause of action which may arise, whether caused by the negligence of RELEASEES, from bodily injury, death or property damage, to me or my children or to third persons as a result of my, or my child’s, participation in the activities described above. I / WE have been fully advised to the terms of the event and hereby agree to perform and consent to my participation, as well as my child’s participation, in the activities described above.

I / WE release RELEASEES from any claim whatsoever on account of first aid, treatment, or service rendered to me or my children during participation in activities associated with, but not limited to, the activities stated above.

The terms of this release are contractual and not a mere recital.
